Regional innovation policies

8th International Seminar

10th - 11th October 2013
Donostia-San Sebastián, Basque Country, Spain

The international seminar Rip 2013 will be held in San Sebastian on 10th and 11th of October. Orkestra and Deusto Business School are hosting this annual event, a meeting point for researchers, policy-makers, academics and practitioners interested in the role that regional innovation policies can play in building sustainable competitive advantages.

Kevin Morgan, Professor of Governance and Development (Cardiff University) and Claire Nauwelaers, specialist in regional research and innovation systems, will participate as keynote speakers. The Rip 2013 seminar will enrich Orkestra's research work on regional innovation systems and regional competitiveness and will also contribute to disseminate knowledge on the Basque innovation system among an international audience of experts.
